We introduce boshi - pan.

Boshi - pan is a bread shaped like a hat.

It was first produced by mistake in 1950.

Nagano asahi - Do is a shop that wanted to make melon flavored bread.

But they forgot to put cookie dough on top of the bread when they first made it.

To not waste the bread, the owner of Naganoasahi - Do gave it to all workers to eat.

This was the beginning of boshi - pan.

In the beginning, boshi - pan was a square

And it was called Kastera - pan.

It became round later and it was called "Boshi - pan."

Boshi - pan is popular by people in Kochi.

Many bakeries sell it.

When you come to Kochi, you should buy boshi - pan.
