Kochi is famous for sake. Kochi people like sake very much. There is a festival in Kochi called Dorome festival. They have a sake fast drinking contest. This contest is popular in other prefectures too. It's held in April. My home room teacher can drink a lot of sake.

She won the sake fast drinking contest when she was twenty-two years old. She likes Ajuru the best. Even people who don't like to drink sake can drink it. There are many kinds of sake in Kochi. My grandfather likes Tosazuru sake. He has it always with him. We are looking forward to drinking sake in the future. Why don't you come to Kochi to drink sake!
